KEEPING FAITH WITH THOSE ON THE FRONT LINE.

As we watched the tragedy of savage attacks unfolding across Paris earlier this month, we were again reminded of the bravery and commitment that our service men and women have displayed in protecting our country and our families in a dangerous world.

Once again, we have reason to give thanks for their heroic dedication in the fight against terrorism while at the same time our hearts and prayers go out to the suffering families in France and around the world who lost precious and innocent loved ones during the barbaric events of that tragic night. Their pain is unimaginable.

With the support of hundreds of contributors, the Combat Soldiers Recovery Fund (CSRF) continues to say thank you to those military personnel who went far, far from home to engage these terrorists and protect our homeland and who have returned home with severe and debilitating injuries.

We cannot say thank you too many times to these heroes, and we are always delighted to meet and welcome new contributors to the work of the CSRF.

Recently we were pleased to be selected by DRI, a professional organization of defense attorneys across the nation, to be their 2015 service project at their annual meeting in Washington DC. DRI maintains a Veterans Outreach Network of members who are also veterans who sponsor a veterans-related project every year.

CSRf volunteers and members of the DRI Network manned a fundraising table at the annual meeting, and our special CSRf donor car was parked in the exhibition hall for attendees, exhibitors and hotel staff to sign. The car's sponsor (FUR) donates $1 to CSRf for every signature and we had hundreds of signatures.

DRI executive director John R. Kouris, a veteran himself, said that "It is we who are honored to have Garland Miller with us at this annual meeting and to contribute in a small way to the tremendous, selfless and tireless work that CSRf does for those who sacrifice so much for this country."

Over $5,500 was raised, and – as always! – 100% will go to wounded members of the military and their families.

The holiday season has arrived – a season of Thanksgiving and gift-giving. As we give special thanks for the safety of our families this Thanksgiving, please consider giving a holiday gift of thanks to a wounded soldier so that his or her family can enjoy the holidays as much as we will with our own families.

Thank you to Roxanne Littner for her donation of her car.

If you have a car that you would like to donate, please contact Combat Soldiers Recovery Fund.

Also thanks to Jack Horner, Larry Comella, Maureen and Phil Boling, Scott Imirie for helping at the fund raiser.

WITH THE SUPPORT OF HUNDREDS OF CONTRIBUTORS, CSRf CONTINUES TO SAY THANK YOU TO MILITARY PERSONNEL WHO WENT FAR, FAR FROM HOME TO PROTECT OUR HOMELAND
